

Goals

2. Maintaining the scientific level, educating and training students and disseminating comprehensive knowledge of dental sciences to graduate distinguished dentists to provide therapeutic services in all areas of oral and dental medicine by developing the ability to think to make a sound clinical decision and develop a comprehensive treatment plan for the patient.
2. Spreading health awareness and preventive methods necessary to maintain oral and dental health.
3. Qualifying all graduates in accordance with professional ethics.
4. The graduate must have the ability to identify the needs of society and provide appropriate solutions to meet these needs with high efficiency by instilling mental and manual compatibility skills.
5. Continuous development of the college through developing laboratories and curricula in accordance with global developments in the field of dentistry and holding conferences, workshops and scientific seminars locally and internationally.
6. Providing high-level academic programs in accordance with quality requirements and Academic Accreditation Specialized Program.

7. Continuous development of faculty skills and encouragement of research production, writing, publishing and translation in health aspects of community service.

8. Building distinguished relationships with various corresponding educational, health and research institutions locally, regionally and globally.