

Mission

The mission of the Department of Dentistry at Al-Safwa University College is to create a distinguished educational and research environment with the highest standards of quality and to achieve excellence in dentistry by qualifying professional competencies in dental sciences and providing distinguished educational, applied and research services in dental programs that comply with the requirements of academic accreditation for preparing graduates with high scientific and professional competence who are able to contribute to community service and contribute effectively to spreading and applying the culture of oral health combined with clinical knowledge by providing excellent service for the patients.