

Vision

The Department of Dentistry at Al-Safwa University College aspires to be distinguished in achieving leadership and distinction in education and scientific research in various dental specialties such as in conservative dentistry, oral surgery, treatment of periodontal diseases, pediatric dentistry, Preventive dentistry, orthodontics, and diagnosing and treating oral diseases by developing skills and professional competencies in the field of dentistry to be recognized globally for its commitment to transferring scientific knowledge well and providing distinguished treatment methods for patients using modern technologies in the fields of treatment and diagnosis in the in the clinics of dentistry department.